Vision Solutions Announces New Board Member

Microsoft Veteran Robert J. Herbold Joins the Board of the Leading Provider of Disaster Recovery and High Availability Solutions for IBM Server Platforms

Irvine, Calif. (Nov. 26, 2007) Vision Solutions[®], the leading provider of high availability and disaster recovery solutions in the IBM[®] System i and System p markets, today announced Robert J. Herbold has joined its Board of Directors.

“Bob is a widely respected executive and his broad experience and relationships with high profile companies will add great insight to our team,” says Nicolaas Vlok, president and CEO of Vision Solutions. “We are very excited to have attracted a board member of his caliber. With his wealth of operational expertise, he will prove invaluable as we enter our next phase of growth and address new challenges.”

“Vision Solutions is an incredibly dynamic organization and I’m excited to join such a remarkable leadership team,” shares Mr. Herbold. “Needless to say, I’m looking forward to working with this exceptional group of talented people and contributing to Vision Solutions’ success.”

“As Chairman of the Board, I welcome Bob and look forward to working with such an exceptional industry leader,” adds Marcel Bernard, operating partner of Thoma Cressey Bravo, Inc. “He brings a new dimension to our team and to Vision Solutions as a whole.”

Robert J. (Bob) Herbold, retired executive vice president and chief operating officer of Microsoft Corporation, is the Managing Director of Herbold Group, LLC, a consulting business focused on driving profitability, operational, and marketing excellence in growth-oriented businesses. Herbold joined Microsoft in November 1994 as executive vice president and chief operating officer. During his tenure, he was responsible for finance, manufacturing and distribution, information systems, human resources, corporate marketing, market research, and public relations. During his nearly 7 years as COO, Microsoft experienced a four fold increase in revenue and a seven fold increase in profits. Herbold also worked for Microsoft as Executive Vice President assisting in the government, industry and customer areas. Prior to joining Microsoft, Herbold spent 26 years at The Procter & Gamble Company. In his last 5 years with P&G, he served as senior vice president of advertising and information services. In that role, he was responsible for the company’s worldwide advertising/brand management operations as well as all marketing related services such as media and television program production. He was also responsible for management information systems and market research on a worldwide basis.
